

Jeri-Lynne's Jottings

Now Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?" "They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him." At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. He asked her, "Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?"
John 20:11-15 [NIV]

Who is it that we are looking for this Easter? Are we looking for the resurrected Jesus or some other kind of savior? If we are truthful, sometimes the savior we seek fits the description of our BFF who has the super powers of God and the political/military expertise of decorated general. We want someone who can be there to listen to all of our joys and woes; fix our emotional, physical, and financial pains; as well as fix this crazy messed up world!

We are not much different than those who were present with Jesus over 2,000 years ago when Jesus arrived in Jerusalem just five days before His bloody Crucifixion. Everybody remembers that day! It was a joyful and glorious day. It was a time of excitement, optimism, and renewed national pride for the Israelites. What starts with a handful of disciples offering their praise to God turns into a citywide celebration! And if we think about it, we can appreciate why. After all, the people of Jerusalem had been waiting for something like this for a long time!

Their hope was that Jesus would launch a revolution against the Romans and free the Holy city from Roman occupation. Still, if the truth be told, all of their hosannas couldn't hide the fact that Jesus is not quite what they expected Him to be. Most conquering Kings ride into town on a White Stallion—ready for war. Jesus came on this little colt of a donkey that almost left His feet dragging on the ground. Plus there was no sword in His hand nor any weapon attached to His saddle. In fact, Jesus doesn't even have a saddle, only someone's old overcoat. As we watch Jesus entering Jerusalem with friends and followers waving palms, not swords, we see into the heart of God. And at least one thing is clear: Jesus doesn't come to us on our terms. Jesus comes on God's terms. Yet, He comes. And that is very good!

The people wanted a prophet, but this Prophet would tell them that their city was under God's imminent judgment. What do we want today? Do we want a prophet? Do we want a judge? The people wanted a Messiah, but Jesus—the Messiah—was about to be enthroned on a horrible, bloody Cross. The people wanted to be rescued from evil and oppression, and Jesus was going to rescue them from evil...but from evil in its fullest depths, not just the surface evil that they could see. Those who believed in Christ experienced change. But the change wasn't necessarily in their outward circumstances. The change occurred in their hearts.

The crowds wanted Jesus to conquer in the worldly way. Jesus would conquer through serving, loving and laying down His life to save those who believe. Jesus comes as Jerusalem's King to bring salvation, but salvation means much more than relief from an oppressive government. Jesus comes to free people from themselves! Don't mistake who Jesus is and look for the wrong savior this Easter. Jesus Christ frees people from self-hatred, selfishness, shame, greed, fear, death and from our broken relationship with God! Jesus gives us the gift of the fruit of the Spirit, the Holy Spirit, and life to the fullest! But it is a life to be lived in humble service and loving gratitude in Christ's name for the Kingdom of God.

As you seek Jesus in your life this Easter season consider ways you can participate in humbly serving God's Kingdom. Circleville Presbyterian Church's spiritual leadership is prayerfully discerning God's will for this body of Christ. We ask that you join us in praying diligently for the Holy Spirit to guide us. Also consider the stewardship of your time and talents as Circleville Presbyterian Church implements new and creative ministries to reach God's people in our community! Most importantly, seek Jesus in every person you meet;

“Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’ ‘The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

By Diana Jones, D.C.E.

ONCE AGAIN LENT HAS COME—THE MOST HOLIEST OF THE CHURCH YEAR. Let's make a promise this year and spend some time reading and talking about this Lenten Season with our children/youth. I would suggest that you use the Gospel of Luke, Chapter 19, Verse 28 (Palm Sunday) through Chapter 24 (Easter Sunday) of the NIV Bible. We all know the story of Palm Sunday and then back to worship the next Sunday and Jesus is risen (Easter). BUT to understand the true meaning you must go through the other chapters and experience Holy Week. This is one of the assignments for the Confirmation Class in their book, "THE STORY OF JESUS".

THE VALENTINE LUNCHEON FOR OUR MATURE MEMBERS OVER 75 was very well attended. The youth (18 strong!) set up, decorated, prepared, and cleaned up with very little help from their advisors. 12 door prizes were won by the attendees including a pink teddy bear for Frank Seimer! Many thanks to all for a fun afternoon.

OUR SOUP AND SALAD LUNCH FOR THE PURPOSE OF VBS AND ITS MISSION was a huge success raising $400.00. Many thanks to Margaret and her committee as well as the superb homemade soup makers!

PARENTS AND CHILDREN/YOUTH: I would like you to set aside the date of March 24 at 7:00 p.m. for a special happening. More details later.

ON SUNDAY, MARCH 13, the Children's Ministry Committee will host a special party for our children and youth beginning at 4:00—6:00. Emily Smith, Julie Calder, Susanne Hardin, and Jayme Fountain are in charge of all the surprises. Watch for more info in the bulletin.

A PLEASANT HAPPENING AT THE RHOADES TOWER in Columbus! From the end of February to the end of March, KELLER CLOUSE, will be displaying her art work. Keller was one of the 31 students chosen for this Ohio Art Education Award. Congratulations!
